

Arizona's Voter ID Rules

Arizona requires ID to vote in person.
ID is not required to vote by mail.

IDs Accepted at the Polls

Voters must provide ID that proves their name and address. You have three options:

Option 1: Photo ID

Show one photo ID with a name and address that match your voter registration.

Must be unexpired or show no expiration date:

- AZ driver's license
- AZ state ID card
- Tribal ID with photo
- Military ID
- Photo ID issued by US, AZ or local government

Option 2: Non-Photo IDs

Show two non-photo IDs with a name and address that match your voter registration.

Dated within 90 days:

- Utility bill (including cell phone, internet, cable)
- Bank or credit union statement

Must be unexpired or show no expiration date:

- Tribal ID without photo
- Property tax statement
- Recorder's certificate
- AZ vehicle registration or insurance card
- ID issued by US, AZ or local government
- Any mail labeled "official election material"

Option 3: Combination of IDs

Show one photo ID (from option 1) with no address or address that does not match voter registration
+ one non-photo ID (from option 2) with address that matches.

Examples:

- US passport or passport card + accepted non-photo ID
- Military ID + accepted non-photo ID
- Photo ID issued by AZ public educational institution + accepted non-photo ID
